1.1.1 Incident Category

Time Critical Removal Action

1.1.2 Site Description

S&K Hand Tool Corp., was a manufacturer of hand tools in Defiance, Ohio. One of the manufacturing activities was metal plating. They closed shop sometime in July, 2010. Several containers of waste remained at the site which includes metal plating related hazardous waste.

1.1.2.1 Location

The site is located at

135 Hickory Street
Defiance, OH 43512

Latitude: 41.2804630
Longitude: -84.3394590

1.1.2.2 Description of Threat

The facility is not secured and it has been vandalised. The local county commissioners had expressed concerns regarding the potential release of waste off site. Site assessment indicated corrosive, reactive and oxidizer waste materials. The site is located in a populated area in Defiance

1.1.3 Preliminary Removal Assessment/Removal Site Inspection Results

On November 30, 2011, EPA conducted a site assessment. During the assessment, EPA collected samples that showed drums SK-DRUM-001 and SK-DRUM-002 contained liquids with a pH of 2 standard units (SU), which according to regulations at 40 CFR 261.22, makes the waste hazardous for characteristics of corrosivity. Drum SK-DRUM-004 was found to contain cyanide, which according to regulations at 40 CFR 261.23, makes the waste hazardous for characteristics of reactivity. EPA also documented labeled hazardous waste marked with waste codes F006 and D007, which indicated the drums contain wastewater treatment sludges from electroplating per 40 CFR 261.31 (F006) and exceed the maximum concentration of contaminants for the toxicity characteristic for chromium per 40 CFR 261.24 (F007).

The wastes are unsecured, exposed to the elements, and can be accessed by anyone entering the site. Many of the drums are open. The OEPA has requested EPA's assistance in addressing environmental hazards at the site

- Acid waste stream containers were segregated on pallets and stretch wrapped for shipping
- The cleaning of the former heat and treat room (oil room) was completed and given a final broom sweeping
- The cleaning of the plating area began with the removal and disposal of the large piping and duct work debris.
- One full 30 cubic yard roll off box was picked up from the site and sent to Republic Landfill in Fort Wayne, IN on 6/15/12. An empty roll-off box was dropped off in its place.

6/18 to 6/22, 2012

The removal of large debris was completed in the polishing room. Debris was disposed of in roll-off boxes.

- Oil based paint, latex paint and grease waste streams were over-packed into one cubic yard lined HazBox waste containers in preparation for shipping. Plating area was cleared of all debris and broom swept
- Two roll-off boxes filled with RCRA empties and debris solids were shipped to Republic Landfill on both 6/19/12 and 6/20/12
- The cleaning in the polishing room was completed with a final broom sweeping
- The poly tank located outside of the facility that contained rainwater was drained of its contents and rendered unusable.
- The crushing/cutting and disposal of RCRA empty containers was ongoing throughout the week. Wastes were packaged and prepared for disposal.

6/25 to 6/28, 2012

All waste was shipped off-site to disposal facilities as shown in the progress metrics table below.

Subject: RE: SK HAND TOOL SITE: STATUS QUESTIONS

Ms. Jansen:

SK Hand tool owes over $146,000.00 in back taxes. A real estate investor had expressed interest in the property, but I have not heard from this company in several months. I do not know if this investor still has interest or not. As of right now, there is no immediate plan of action that Defiance County is considering.

If you have any further questions, please let me know.

Subject: SK HAND TOOL SITE: STATUS QUESTIONS

Hello, Vicki –

I would appreciate your reading, at your convenience, the paragraphs below to be sure I understand the status of the Site ownership and the potential for a tax certificate sale. The content of the highlighted sentences and the tax terminology are what I am not sure of. Revisions are welcome.

The SK Hand Tool Site is located at 135 Hickory Street, Defiance, Defiance County, Ohio 43512 and includes one parcel (Parcel No. J090030E00600) (the Site). SK Hand Tool Corporation is the current owner of the Site as well as five parcels west of the Site.

As of September 17, 2014, SK Hand Tool Corporation owes over $132,000? $140,000? in back taxes on the Site parcel. The appraised value of that parcel is $398,070.00. In September 2014, the Defiance County Treasurer informed EPA's Enforcement Specialist in a phone conversation that a real estate investor has expressed interest in owning the Site and the five parcels west of the Site and in conducting a Phase II Investigation there. The County is considering conducting a tax lien certificate sale. If the investor meets the eligibility requirements and buys the tax lien certificates, he could foreclose on the certificates and take title to the Site and other parcels. If the investor decides not to buy the tax lien certificates, the County will ??????????????????

Maybe there is new information since you met with the Jerry Hayes last week. It would be great if the property were put back into use.

SK Hand Tool assets sold to Ideal Industries

By: Lorene Yue August 23, 2010

(Crain's) — SK Hand Tool Corp.'s brand name has been sold to Ideal Industries Inc. through a bankruptcy auction.

Sycamore-based Ideal Industries Inc. was the highest bidder for some SK Hand Tool assets, which were put on the market after the company sought Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in June.

SK Hand Tool, which was founded in Chicago in 1921, will become a subsidiary of Ideal Industries, which manufactures tools for the electrical industry.

Doug Spitler, a vice-president at Ideal, will head up the SK Hand Tool division.

The deal, worth more than $3.5 million according to bankruptcy documents, is scheduled to be approved by a bankruptcy judge on Wednesday.

Ideal Industries will decide within 30 days after the closing if it will manufacture SK Hand Tool products at one of Ideal's existing plants or build a new facility, the company said in a statement.

The purchase of SK Hand Tool's assets did not include any employees, plants or real estate, an Ideal Industries spokesman said.

SK Hand Tool is the third acquisition Ideal Industries has made this year. Ideal earlier purchased Western Forge of Colorado and Pratt-Real Tools LLC of Connecticut.

SK Hand Tool was hit hard by the economic recession and at one time owed its primary lender roughly $9 million.

The manufacturing firm stopped offering health benefits to its workers last summer, a move that prompted 70 union workers from Teamsters Local 743 to go on strike.

At the time, SK Hand Tool officials said the company was unable to control the factors that led to its inability to offer health insurance. By the time SK Hand Tool filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy, its plant in Defiance, Ohio, had ceased operating and only a few workers were left in its Chicago facility.

IDEAL Acquires Premier Tool Manufacturer SK Hand Tools

IDEAL expands its commitment to "Made In America" mission by keeping manufacturing of iconic tool brand in the United States

SYCAMORE, IL, August 23, 2010 – IDEAL INDUSTRIES, INC. announced today that it has entered into a definitive agreement to purchase certain assets of SK Hand Tools Corporation, one of America's leading manufacturers of tools for the professional mechanic.

Doug Spittler, Vice President and General Manager of IDEAL's Retail and Industrial Divisions, has been named to run the new company which will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of IDEAL: "Acquiring SK Hand Tools will expand our focus on American-made quality, service and value. Loyal customers can count on the SK brand being re-energized under IDEAL ownership as the premier 'Made in USA' line of professional tools."

This latest move follows IDEAL's acquisition of American tool makers Western Forge and Pratt Read earlier this year, and further demonstrates the company's ongoing dedication to manufacturing in the United States. Although IDEAL is still formalizing plans, the company is committed to manufacturing SK tools in the United States, either by integrating production into its existing plants or building a new, state-of-the-art facility. IDEAL will publish its comprehensive manufacturing plans for SK within 30 days after the sale closes.

Founded in 1921, Chicago-based SK Hand Tools is considered an icon by generations of mechanics. Its broad line of quality-made tools, including sockets, ratchets, hammers, and wrenches, have evolved over time to make them among the most precise and reliable on the market. IDEAL intends to sell SK Hand Tools' portfolio of nearly 4000 tools under the SK® brand throughout the automotive and industrial channels of distribution.

The asset sale is expected to be finalized on August 25, 2010 with IDEAL assuming no liabilities. SK had filed for bankruptcy protection on June 29, 2010.

October 10, 2010

To our loyal SK Hand Tool Customers:

On August 25, 2010, IDEAL INDUSTRIES Inc. acquired certain assets of SK Hand Tool Corporation and has formed a new company, SK Hand Tool LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of IDEAL INDUSTRIES INC. IDEAL is a well known brand offering products for professionals in the electrical, datacom, wire processing and OEM electrical connection market, and is known for making a professional's job easier; products that you can rely on, with warranties you can trust, and products that are available when you need them. All IDEAL products come with a promise made by the company founder J. Walter Becker in 1916: "An IDEAL product will provide a value greater than the price paid for it. Service is a part of the product." For more information on IDEAL INDUSTRIES Inc, please see the website at <http://www.IdealIndustries.com>.

The acquisition of SK Hand Tool is the latest of three acquisitions IDEAL has made this year. All three companies, including SK, Western Forge and Pratt Reed, are known for producing premium, professional hand tools, demonstrating IDEAL's commitment to United States manufacturing. SK Hand Tool LLC is committed to manufacturing as many products as possible in domestic, SK or IDEAL owned facilities.

New Facility

SK Hand Tool LLC did not acquire the buildings or land that was occupied by the old SK Hand Tool Corporation. Therefore, production of SK's core products will take place in a brand new, state of the art, lean manufacturing optimized facility in the Sycamore Business Park, 300 yards from IDEAL INDUSTRIES Inc. corporate office in Sycamore, IL. The official groundbreaking for the new building took place on October 4, 2010 for a 130,000 sq-ft manufacturing facility.

The construction efforts are being fast tracked and we plan to begin moving equipment into the building in January 2011, with full production ramping up by the second quarter of 2011.

Warranty

While SK Hand Tool LLC is not liable for product produced and sold by SK Hand Tool Corporation, we value our customer's dedication to the SK brand and will do our best to make good on the situation according to the new SK Hand Tool LLC Limited Lifetime Warranty policy. Please reference the attached Warranty statement, or our website (<http://www.skhandtool.com>) for more details.

More Information

In the coming months you will be receiving updates addressing product pricing, standard terms and conditions, product offering and the status of the new facility build.

Thank you for your patience during our transition period. We look forward to partnering with you in restoring the iconic SK brand name.

Regards,

Aaron Mattison
